THE
"BELLE OF THE BALL."

Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty."
The reason is easy to find: Rare Perfumes lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place;

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE.

The "Belles" all know our stock of "society odors" is most complete.
One thing is certain—you may forget us, but the remembrance of our DELICATE, RARE and LASTING perfumes will linger longer with you than the memory of the "last rose of summer."

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—A transcript from the record in the case of James G. Lowe, who was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for three years for obtaining money by false pretense and was later granted a new trial by the Circuit Court, is being made by Clerk McVay. It is possible that the State will appeal from the Circuit Court decision to the Supreme Court.

—Tuesday evening H. E. Hennis, agent of the U. S. Express company, missed a package of merchandise and upon making a hunt for it found it in possession of a young stranger on Second street. The young fellow acknowledged having stolen the package from a truck in the Union Depot, but refused to divulge his name. He was turned over to the authorities and locked up on the charge of larceny.

—During the Republican jollification at Parkersburg Monday night a young man named John Halfhill, Jr., was run over by a wagon in the parade and received injuries from which he died in a short time. Both wheels of the vehicle passed over his stomach and he was crushed in a shocking manner.

—The steamer Fred Wilson collided with the Shiras at Williamson's Island Monday morning, with the result that the latter's wheel was broken and two of her barges were sunk. The Shiras stuck on the bar at that point and aid was telegraphed for to get her clear.

—The Yoke & Nicholson well on the Richardson farm near Tallyho, which has kept the talent guessing for over a week, was given a good shot yesterday evening about 5 o'clock, and will make a small pumper. They found 10 feet of Berea sand and demonstrated that there is oil in that locality. The well will pump 10 or 15 barrels a day and will be the means of further operations in that vicinity.—Sentinel.

—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Eells, of Marietta, who have been the guests of Mayor and Mrs. R. H. Thomas, left today for their home.—Parkersburg Journal.

A certain young oil man is going around with a bland smile on his face in consequence. Some say he will be Gov. Pingree's son-in-law soon.

—John Forrester, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forrester, died of diphtheria Tuesday morning. The mortality among children afflicted with this disease is assuming alarming proportions and every means should be taken by the Board of Health and the public generally to prevent it becoming epidemic. The law requires every case to be reported immediately to the Health Officer.

—The Chillicothe Gazette says: Mr. C. G. Thomas has made preparations to remove his family in a few days to Marietta, where they will reside permanently hereafter, it being the intention of Mr. Thomas to engage in the grocery business.

Immediately after the wedding the happy couple will leave for Bradford, Pa., for a short visit previous to a tour of western cities. They will reside in Marietta. A Valuable Prescription.
Editor Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

YES, THERE ARE OTHERS,

But so Different. It's Proof That Counts and That's What Marietta People Want.

There are many of them. Read about them every day. Do you believe all you read? We think not. Why? Well, perhaps you know differently. Hard to endorse a statement in Marietta.
Of a man in St. Louis. Bad backs are numerous. So are Kidney cures. But do they cure? That's the all-important question. Claim is one thing—proof is another. Claim means what the manufacturer says.
Proof means what the people say. The people say, Doan's Kidney Pills cure Kidney ills. Who are the people? Why Marietta people—What other endorsement is proof?
Mr. J. W. White, of No. 301 Washington St., says:—"My kidneys have been my weak point all my life and my occupation, a painter, is hard on the organs. I have had a number of attacks of kidney trouble but the last one was very severe and I was forced to do something to get relief. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at W. H. Styer's drug store on Front St. My back was in such a condition I could hardly get around. It felt as if unjointed, when I stooped or lifted anything. After I had taken one box all signs of the disorder disappeared. I found Doan's Kidney Pills very easy to take and endorse them as such."
Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, 6 boxes for $2.50. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Choice Hibernicisms.
At the convention of the Irish race last month in Dublin two speakers, who had come from the United States, contributed the following sentences in the course of their speeches. One of them, in giving some details of personal history, informed his hearers that "he had left Ireland 53 years before, a naked little boy, without a dollar in his pocket." Said the other: "Until last week I had never set foot in the land of my birth."
